GENERAL WOOD AND THE PHILIPPINES.

It is no use hiding the conviction that in the inner government circles in Washington, there is a possibility of trouble with Japan or China. Major-General Wood, who will leave the Philippines next month for a trip to the United States by way of Europe, has asked to be sent back to the island at the end of his 18-month tour of duty. President Roosevelt is anxious for him to return and so are the business interests in the Philippines.

The circumstance has more than ordinary significance in view of General Wood's record for success in Cuba and the Philippines and the possibility of trouble with Japan or in connection with the maintenance of the open door in China.

Gen. Wood has for the greater part of the past ten years been stationed in the tropics and the prospects of a second tour in the Philippines presents to him no phase of hardship compared with the understanding that he is put there for strong military reasons. Besides being a man of admirable tact and strength, in administration he has proved himself a good diplomat, and the president holds that he would be the safest man he could place in command of the Philippines division.

With the work that is now going on in the Philippines will in two years' time be a military base of no small importance. Gen. Wood has been commonly slated to succeed Gen. MacArthur as lieutenant general on the retirement of the latter in June, 1909, but it is now known that this is not to occur.

Gen. Wood will not retire for age until October 1924. If he were to succeed Gen. MacArthur he would be lieutenant general of the army for fifteen years. He can, therefore, afford to stand aside, although he is the ranking major general, and allow other worthy officers to enjoy the honour. It is understood in this connection that Brig. Gen. Lester H. Bliss, in command of the Department of Mindanao, has asked to be continued in command there for another two years, following his present tour of service in the Philippines.

SHOOTING AFFRAY AT NAGASAKI.

"The Nagasaki Press" states that a serious shooting affray took place at the Oriental Hotel, Creekside, on November 30 shortly after noon. The result was that Mr. A. Abolin, first officer of the Russian str. Neva, was conveyed to hospital in a critical condition. It appears that Abolin went to the hotel in company with A. Enkur, an employee of Messrs Ginsburg & Co., at 2 a.m. and remained there with him until the time of the occurrence. According to a statement made by the proprietor of the hotel, the two men suddenly quarrelled and Enkur took a revolver from his pocket and fired eight shots at Abolin in quick succession. Five shots took effect, one in the head, another in the arm, and three in the abdomen.

THE KAISER IN ENGLAND.

The character of the reception given to the Emperor and Empress of Germany in England has created a deep impression in the German country. The language of the toast exchanged by King Edward and the Emperor William at Windsor has been greeted by the Press as furnishing additional evidence of the cordial relations between the two Monarchs. The circumstance that this rapprochement coincides with an improvement in the relations between the German and English peoples is held to afford cause for special congratulation on both sides.

LIVER DISORDER CURED.

ANOTHER TRIUMPH FOR BILE BEANS.

WHEN the system becomes loaded with impurities the liver is unable to perform its task of circulating pure blood throughout the body. The result is that the whole system is deranged, the blood becomes foul, and the disorder spreads through the whole body, giving rise to such irregularities as skin eruptions, and discoloured, etc. A certain cure for this ailment is Bile Beans, which thoroughly cleanse the polluted system, and assist the liver in its work.

Miss F. A. Adams, of New Street, Windermere, Stoke, Wilshire, England, says:—"About two years ago I contracted a chill which settled on my liver. I gradually grew weak and feverish and my breathing became very difficult. I lost all my colour and became so weak and listless that I ceased to take interest in anything. I consulted a doctor, who, having examined me, said I was suffering from liver complaint, whilst at the same time my heart was also in a very bad state. He prescribed for me, but his medicines did not do me a bit of good. I then went to Salisbury to a friend where I was treated as an out-patient, but though I attended for three months I got no better and almost gave up hope of ever being well again. The pains I suffered in my head were dreadful. If I stooped down I felt sick, and my head seemed as if it would split open. For months I was like this and at last had to take to my bed. The neighbours all said I was dying and I certainly looked like it."

"One day a friend of mine sent me a bottle of Bile Beans. I began to take them, and very soon perceived an improvement in my condition. My colour returned, I began to enjoy my food, a thing I had not done for two years; my breathing got better and in fact I felt stronger altogether. I continued to take the Beans with returning hope and confidence and they have now completely cured me. I am fully convinced that I should not be alive now but for Bile Beans and I shall never cease to recommend them to all with whom I come in contact."

Bile Beans are a certain cure for indigestion, debility, biliousness, constipation, piles, nervousness, anemia, female ailments, weakness, neuritis, pains in the back, sleeplessness, loss of appetite, liver complaint, headache, flatulence, pimples, and skin eruptions. Obtainable of all chemists and medicine vendors. Price 75 cents (Mex.) per bottle.

HONGKONG, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 17, 1907

OUR POLICY IN INDIA.

WHEN Mr John Morley was appointed

Secretary of State for India many shook their heads and thought that a result of his regime would be the demolition of the work of long and weary years by those who had actually borne the heat and burden of the day in India.

As we pointed out some time ago never have expectations been so falsified.

Mr Morley, while not forgetting those principles of which he was so eloquent an exponent in by-gone times has disclosed himself as a wise and a generous but firm administrator. No exception could possibly be taken to the influence which he has wielded upon Indian politics. He has been strong when strength was required and he has made concessions when they could be made without endangering the supremacy of the British race. There has been nothing in his administration to suggest the humanitarian intent upon showing the correctness of his own views at any cost. Mr Morley has had to grapple with Indian affairs when they were most difficult. An avowed believer in granting self-government to subject nations he has been confronted with a noisy and insistent demand that Indians should henceforth guide the destinies of India. For a man pledged, as Mr Morley undoubtedly is, to the principle that subject races should be given self rule at the earliest possible opportunity the position was undoubtedly an extremely awkward one. None the less he faced that position bravely and even the most captious of Unionists must acknowledge that he has held the scales fairly. While not allowing the foolish and fatuous anti-British movement to disturb him in the least degree he has made concessions to the Indian national spirit which will be remembered long after their bestower has passed away. To Mr Morley is due the credit that two Hindoos—for the first time in history—are members of the India Council. In a word Mr

Morley while showing himself a strong sympathiser with the legitimate aspirations of the Indians for self rule, has wisely leavened his beliefs and sympathies with the recollection of his duties to the Empire. That India may become capable of self-government is sincerely to be desired. But obviously, the time is not yet and even Mr Morley, with all his genuinely fine ideals, is constrained to acknowledge now that the weight of responsibility rests upon him that for India the hour has not yet struck. Our policy in India, the policy of slowly but surely preparing the Indian people for the day when they will be entrusted with the administration of their own affairs, has not suffered in consequence of Mr Morley becoming Secretary of State for India. It is but just that the wise and conservative attitude he has adopted should receive its meed of recognition from those who are, on general political questions, at variance with him.

There is a heavy tax in America on press paper, wood-pulp and all the wood which goes into the manufacture of paper. The inevitable result has been the formation of a Paper Trust which has steadily been increasing the price of the commodity. The position having become intolerable the American Newspaper Publishers' Association has appealed to President Roosevelt to abolish the tax. President Roosevelt at once promised to recommend Congress to grant the publishers the relief asked for and also to urge the Department of Justice to ascertain if the paper manufacturers were violating the anti-trust laws. This is a very pretty situation.

At one time the President was a Free

Trader but now he is a "good" Protectionist. Among the gentlemen who waited upon him to ask for the abolition of the tax were the publishers of papers which, in season and out, preach the gospel that high duties make for general prosperity. As one of the few Free Trade organs in New York aptly puts it: "They are demanding Free Trade in paper, while insisting that not another hair on the hairy tariff head should be touched." It is ever thus with "high"

Protectionists. They beseech the other fellow to recognise that the surest way for him to wax rich is to pay thumping duties for the benefit of the manufacturers of the article and commodities in daily use. But when they are offered a dose of their own medicine they turn away in disgust and declare that it is too inexpressly nauseous. It is evident that the Protectionist newspaper proprietors of America hold that different kinds of saucers are necessary for the goose and for the gander.

next session of the Senate for the estab-

The scheme provides for the construction

FROM HANKOW TO HONG-

KONG OVERLAND.

The Hon. Mr Edward Osborn, Consul-

General at Hankow, and Professor Edmunds, of Canton, have returned from their trip which began at Hankow, including Chang-sha, Hangchow and Yungchow, in Hunan province, Kweichow, the capital of Kwangsi province, and concluding with a voyage of 250 miles down the Fu river to Wuchow.

The gentlemen report that the Chinese met with were uniformly agreeable and there were no unpleasant incidents during the tour. Indeed, the Chinese officials and others did all they could to make the trip pleasurable.

The Pingnan coal mines in Hunan province—with a sixty mile railway—operated by Germans for the Chinese were visited, and stays were made with various mission groups, often the only Europeans in the various places. There were two house-boat trips in the itinerary and these the travellers regard as a rather tedious form of locomotion when one must consult time. The local officials always insisted upon supplying the travellers with a guard of soldiers—the escort ranging from three to a dozen—and these may have been some protection, as robber bands might have elected to abandon for a time their attacks on

Rain Stops Play.

Australia Collapsing.

(From Our Special Correspondent.)

SYDNEY, December 16, 8.20 p.m.

After the tea adjournment to-day Guon, and Hardstaff continued to bat well, but the former only added eight, his Club mate scoring another 14. Young and Crawford failed to materially increase the score, but Braund, Blythe and Barnes each succeeded in getting double figures, Braund playing a brisk innings for 31, not out.

When stumps were drawn the Englishmen had lost nine wickets for 293 runs.

A Wet Wicket.

SYDNEY, December 17, 2.13 p.m.

When play commenced this morning the weather was decidedly unpromising, and a drizzling rain fell, later making the wicket bad. The bowling became almost unplayable.

Braund continued his innings with Fielder as a partner, and carried his bat through, only compiling one additional run. Fielder went out after making 6. The Englishmen's innings closed for 300.

The outlook for the Australian team was bad. They had to make 274 to win and a wet wicket to commence upon. Trumper and Hill faced the bowlers first, and the collapse commenced immediately. Trumper was dismissed when he had made three, and Hill when he had made a single.

Macartney went out when he had nine to his credit, and Noble and Armstrong were at the wickets when the adjournment was made for luncheon, the score then being 46 runs for the loss of three wickets.

Rain Stops Play.

SYDNEY, December 17, 4.5 p.m.

The match was continued after lunch, but after seventeen runs had been added to the score, rain put an end to play.

Armstrong was 17 not out, and Noble 27 not out, the total being three wickets for 63 runs.

The Chinese have just stoned a Scandinavian mission in China. Now if England can prove that it was Scandinavians who stoned the Japanese in Vancouver, we might establish a great international clearing-house and pay off these scores without engaging in any warlike demonstrations or settling for cash—American paper.

CAT AND DOG MEAT.

A Prohibition in Canton.

(From Our Correspondent.)

CANTON, December 14.

The Police Department have issued a proclamation forbidding the sale of the flesh of dogs and cats as food. It is pointed out that often the flesh of sick cats and mad dogs is sold, those who chance to have possession of the animals thus seeking a little profit themselves without any care as to how much harm is done to others.

One by one the "features" of this great city are being changed by the ceaseless pressure of Western civilization. Soon Canton will have very few "attractions" for the curious globe trotter. I may add, however, that nothing has yet appeared against the sale of rats.

FOOCHOW NOTES.

(From Our Correspondent.)

FOOCHOW, December 11.

Our community was started a few days ago by the report that the light keeper at Cape Kani, had committed suicide. Crazy perhaps by the lonely life that he was living, Mr. Smith ended it by a revolver bullet through his head. No one can fully appreciate the lonely life that is led by the faithful light keepers, who tend the different light houses along the Chinese coast. A suicide like this should lead us to appreciate the constancy of those who remain at their solitary posts.

Our American missionaries have finished their Mission Meeting and have gone to their posts, many of them far in the interior of Hainan. One of the ladies of this Mission, Miss Schaeffer, has gone on a journey to visit the town of Lank-lah in the extreme south of the island. It will take her more than ten days to reach there and she is accompanied only by her faithful Chinese assistants. This may be thought presumptuous did we not know that this lady speaks the Hainanese language better than most of the Chinese residents here, and that she has gone over the same route once before, and has in consequence an acquaintance with the road and with many of the people whom she will meet en route; moreover all who have any acquaintance with the natives of Hainan know that they are more friendly to foreigners than native infamy other part of China, and that our American Missionaries have been especially successful in cultivating the friendship of all classes.

We learn that in Lo-hoe district of the east coast of Hainan some of the farmers formed a company and called a man from Formosa, who was familiar with the artesian wells which the Japanese have made there, to put down wells of the same kind in their district. They have put down over a dozen wells but in no case could they get a flowing well. They are now preparing to pump these wells. If some foreign firm would put down such wells with windmills and guarantee a supply of water that would enable the natives to mature the winter crop, it could no doubt be made a paying investment in many parts of South China, and would be of great benefit to the people whose summer crops are so liable to be destroyed by the storms of the fall.

We learn that there is some activity in prospecting for tin in the Tain-chow district. The tin is there, but there is some difficulty in securing harmony between two rival companies who are seeking to develop the mine. It is to be hoped that they may be able to work harmoniously, for it is on the development of its mineral resources that there will come to Hainan any material progress.

PNEUMONIA.

THIS is one of the most dangerous, and often fatal, diseases. It always results from a cold or an attack of influenza, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy quickly cures these diseases and counteracts any tendency towards pneumonia. It is made especially for these and similar ailments. For sale by all chemists and druggists.

CROUP.

NOT a minute should be lost when a child shows symptoms of croup. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even if the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. For sale by all chemists and druggists.

FORGED NOTES.

A Chinaman who has just recently arrived in the Colony was charged at the Magistrate's Court this morning with endeavouring to pass a forged $5 note, purporting to be a Hongkong and Shanghai bank note and with having another note in his possession.

Inspector Collett prosecuted and the case was heard before Mr. H. H. J. Gompertz.

The accused was unemployed and had no fixed place of abode. He explained that he won the two notes at Canton playing fak and did not know they were forged until he went to change one. The Magistrate adjourned the further hearing until Thursday next.

Talkoo Detachment.

On Saturday afternoon the extension of the miniature race at Talkoo was opened by Mrs. D. Templeton, Sergeant Lochard and McKirdy being at home to the members of the Talkoo detachment, their wives and friends. The range was originally opened in 1906 with a 30 yards range, now the firing point has been extended to 100 yards and six targets can be used. To Lieut. W. Murray Scott are due the thanks of the detachment for the extension.

A programme of shooting was carried out with the following results:

Members of the Detachment—50 yards, 303 Ammunition, Target 12in. Bull's eye 14in.: Sgt. McKirdy, 15 out of a possible 20, 1; Corp. Crobie 14, 2.

Ladies—Revolver Morris tube, 15 yards, Target 24 in. Bull's eye 6in.: Miss Hoskins, 18 out of a possible 20, 1; Miss Mitchell 16, 2.

Hongkong Visitors—50 yards, 303 ammunition, Target 12 in Bull's eye 14 in.: S. M. Higley 18 out of a possible 20, 1; S. M. Spenser 18, 2.

Sgt. Lochard on behalf of Sgt. McKirdy and himself expressed regret at the absence of Lieut. W. Murray Scott through indisposition, and asked Mrs. Grimshaw to distribute the prizes. After the prize distribution hearty votes of thanks were recorded to Mrs. D. Templeton, Mrs. Grimshaw, Mrs. Muir, Lieut. W. Murray Scott, Sgt. Lochard and McKirdy, and the Hon. Secretary.

KING ALFRED: Goal, Tugwell; Backs, Gale and Snudden; Halves, Ballman, Cameron and Cleary; Forwards, Campbell, Hart, Fleming, Steele and Evans.

HONGKONG: Goal, F. H. Kew; Backs, E. F. Aucton and H. L. Garrett; Halves, P. Linton, West and Gregory; Forwards, L. J. Whistler, R. R. Turner, O. Eager, B. F. Chapman and J. H. Mead.

The match was set down to commence at 5 p.m., and at that time the King Alfred side were waiting, but at 6.10 there were only two Club men on the field; during the next three minutes two more arrived and at 6.17 three more strolled on to the field. Another minute saw two more out and at 6.22 the ball was kicked off, the Club being still a man short—Chapman being after taken on, though H. W. Sayer was the absentee.

The game was an interesting one and both sides held the balance of power at intervals but the pendulum of fortune swung more towards the Club than to their opponents. The Club's inside forwards missed one or two chances of scoring off Mead's good centring, but finally Wishart notched a goal. It was a fine goal and it was from a centre by Mead, which landed right in front of goal. Wishart tried to head the ball but failed and Turner had a shot. The ball struck the right back and bounded out to Wishart who took a flying shot and scored.

There was no further scoring up to half-time, but shortly after the re-start Trumper succeeded in beating Tugwell and adding the Club's second goal. Play was still interesting and the King Alfred's forwards made strenuous efforts to break through the Club's defence, but through faulty kicking at the critical moment they failed to net. Twice during the game a score to the King Alfred seemed certain, but each time the Club wriggled out and finished the game without a goal against them.

A box, containing 2,000 half-sovereigns, consigned from London to Pao, my countryman, was stolen from a parcel van, and is supposed to have been stolen.

Perhaps the human contrasts which gather under its dome were never illustrated better than in the story of the learned and gallant student who paused in his search for the "edible prince" of an obscure work of Plutarch to assist an old lady, whose look of indifference as she turned one of the huge volumes of the catalogue had caught his attention. What did she require? "Oh," was her reply, "I want to find Bradshaw. I am going to Exeter this afternoon, and I wish to know when my train starts."

OUR SPECIAL LETTER.

LONDON, November 15.

ON HOSPITALITY.—Quite recently a well-known supporter of amateur rowing contracted the hospitable manner in which one of our college crews was treated in Germany and the way Von Gatz, the German sculler, was left to look after himself at Henley. British sportsmen who have visited the United States can testify to the kindly treatment meted out to them. Unfortunately, our Clubs in England are not quite in the same position; in fact, we have no athletic club to correspond with the big organizations across the Atlantic, so that offering a visiting athlete Club privileges would amount to little. Somehow, too, the rank and file of sportsmen are very lukewarm in their efforts to make visitors feel at home. An example of this was when W. J. Sherring passed through London after winning the Marathon race. The writer made an appeal to sportsmen to show their gratification at the way the little Canadian had upheld British prestige, by lending him a banquet. One would have thought this would have been enthusiastically received and it does not speak very well for our hospitality and gratitude that the responses were so meagre that the project had to be dropped.

BRAVO POLY.—Thanks to the enterprise of the Polytechnic Institute officials, the visiting athletes who come here for the Olympic festival of 1908 will have no cause to complain of inhospitality. The Governors of the Institute named proposals to offer every visiting competitor at the festival all the privileges of the Polytechnic Institute and Athletic arena. This alone means a great deal, as besides having the run of the Regent Street establishment, they will find facilities for athletic training, rowing, swimming, shooting, gymnastics, lawn tennis, etc., at the Club's Chiswick sports arena, and elsewhere. This is capital but does not include all the Institute proposes to do. Various trips to places of interest will be arranged and the visitors advised and assisted to secure suitable accommodation during their stay in the metropolis. Splendid as is the Poly's scheme, it need not necessarily be the extent of hospitality and at least a banquet ought to be given to the winners.

VARIETY ATHLETICS.—The results of the Cambridge Freshmen's Sports were not so promising, taken all round, as those at Oxford. There were little differences in some of the performances on paper but Oxford's advantage seems to lie in the possibilities of L. C. Hull, the Rhodes scholar, Cambridge, however, appear to have a very useful high jumper in A. C. Bellamy, while the long jumping of C. Armstrong was excellent, and, singularly enough, they both had from St. Lawrence School, Ramsgate. L. C. Hull was again prominent at the Breenose College sports, his best performance being in the 120 yards handicap, which he won from scratch in 12 2/5 seconds.

PAPER CHASING.—That we are fairly launched on the paper-chasing season was well brought home by the important events decided last week end. A. H. Pearson, the Inter-varsity Cross-country champion, led his team of Captains to victory against the Blackheath Harriers and Oxford also beat the South London Harriers, despite the standing down of B. P. B. Mair, the Derby runner who was an onlooker.

RELAY RACING.—One of the most important matters discussed at the recent annual general meeting of the National Cross-country Union was in regard to the constitution of teams for relay races. Many were specially got together for the occasion, which is not "playing the game." The Cross-country Union intend bringing forward a proposition that only first-class members of the Clubs they represent shall be eligible for team and relay races and this ought to meet with the approval of the A. A. A. Of course, this will only apply to Inter-club competition and will not affect relay racing between towns, districts, counties, etc.

WHISTLING.—Britishers were delighted when Joe Rogers came forward for the purpose of making one of the entrants for the big wrestling tournament, as he is English born, though resident in America. The other principals agreed on a later date, in deference to the wishes of O'Rourke, manager for Rogers, and everything looked plain sailing, when articles were signed. Since then, however, O'Rourke has made some very strange proposals, one being that his man could not be ready by Dec. 9, while later he announced that the match must take place this week and the proceeds go to charity. The public may safely be left to judge these actions accurately, and if Rogers fails to come up to the scratch it will be a bitter pill for Britishers and Americans. That Rogers' manager does not think Rogers is anxious to keep faith is shown by his really splendid offer. This is, that Rogers may present himself on any night and without giving notice at the hall where Zhyeco is performing and should the latter fail to throw Rogers in half an hour he will forfeit £200. Rogers therefore has a chance of winning £200 without risking anything and we shall soon see if he has got "sand" or "cold feet."

BOXING.—The training work of Burns and Moir for their forthcoming bout at the National Sporting Club creates great interest in boxing circles. Unlike most champions they are getting themselves fit for the encounter in what may almost be termed the Metropolitan. Moir, at any rate,

THE FREIGHT MARKET.

Messrs Lamko and Rogge report under date of Dec. 14:

The past fortnight has again been a very depressed one. As for prompt loading, offers for any employment for steamers are almost entirely absent. Occasional chartering orders are already beginning to come forward from Saigon for shipment in February, but owners so far decline to meet the inquiries on account of the low rates offered by charterers.

As regards Southern affairs, there have been three fixtures for prompt dates from Saigon for this port at 11 cents, and another middling sized boat is being inquired after at same rate, but it goes without saying that only vessels trading regularly between the two ports will accept such terms. There is very little left now of the old crop's produce, and the still available remnants are being held for higher prices.

Saigon-Philippines, there has been some enquiry resulting in a charter at 20 cents per picul for 25000 piculs, and in addition some of the Manila owned boats are said to have been taken up elsewhere.

Saigon to Java, the fixture of a Norwegian boat is reported at 23 cents.

Shipments from Bangkok to this are still going on by the regular boats, and business on a larger scale cannot be looked for until the new season has opened.

From Java there is no demand for tonnage in any direction.

Anent Northern freights, nothing fresh can be said. The closing rate from Wuhu and Chinkiang to Canton for rice stands at 10 candelars.

From Japan a few more coal charters are on record: Moji to this at $1.40. Wakamatzu to Canton at $2.20, Kuchimoto to Hongkong $2.00.

On monthly terms two small vessels have been secured by local Chinese at very low rates. It is understood that the vessels will be employed in the Saigon trade.

COLONIAL BATTALIONS GOING.

The War Office has its eye on the Colonial corps. The West Indian Battalion
Royal Artillery, and the Ceylon-Mauritius Battalion Royal Artillery, have been disbanded, so has the Chinese Regiment.
The Malta Militia is threatened by reduction, if not extinction, and it is not improbable that the short-sighted policy of the present Administration of "economy" will lead to tampering with the Hongkong-Singapore Battalion.
